Subject: Final Discussions on Caritas and the Wyckoff Relationship

John,

This is pertinent to the separate discussions with you and Virginia today. The agreements for Caritas and Wyckoff, although separate, have similar commitments to RUSM students, as well as written and mutual agreements with RUSM organization.

In my opinion, the past month or so challenged our (usually) fluid communication and constructive interaction, and may have raised some concerns (or defensive measures) among individuals within our organizations. As a suggestion, we should get together and discuss enhancing, if not strengthening the relationship between these two organizations even more within the next several weeks.

We serve parallel missions, and will move forward together.

Meanwhile, let me get back to what is left of this holiday break. I will be back at the office on Tuesday. Enjoy your holiday.

Julius

p.s. The wire transaction was confirmed this afternoon. Thank you for your facilitation.

Subject: Affiliation agreements

Julius,

Attached is a revised draft of the above-referenced agreement. This is a clean copy, suitable for execution.

In accordance with our conversation earlier this morning, the sole change to the document is the deletion in Exhibit of the paragraph referencing the existing agreement between Ross and Wyckoff. As we discussed, the Wyckoff agreement currently provides for a rate of $312.50 per week, per clinical clerkship, until the parties mutually agree otherwise.

You have represented to me that it is your intention that the term of Wyckoff rate be, at a minimum, co-extensive with the term of the rate for the Caritas agreement. You have agreed to confirm this in writing, subsequent to our closure of the Caritas agreement.

If the agreement is now satisfactory to you, please print two copies, sign both, and provide them to Ross. They should sign both, and return one fully executed original for your records.

It was a pleasure speaking with you this morning. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or require additional assistance in connection with this matter.

Kind regards,

Virginia A. Smith
